

RESPONSIVE

Meaning: Responsive: capable of adapting quickly and effectively to changes or needs, such as in design or communication.

1. A responsive design ensures that a website looks great on both desktop and mobile devices.
2. The teacher was highly responsive to the students' questions, fostering an engaging learning environment.
3. Customers appreciate companies that are responsive to their feedback and concerns.
4. Her responsive approach to criticism helped her improve her work significantly.
5. The new software is not only efficient but also very responsive, making it easy to navigate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/responsive>