

REST-HARROW

Meaning: A rest-harrow is a farming implement used for leveling and preparing soil by breaking up clods and smoothing the surface.

1. The farmer decided to use a rest-harrow to prepare his fields for the upcoming planting season.
2. During our walk through the countryside, we spotted a rest-harrow abandoned beside an old barn.
3. After tilling the soil, the gardener followed up with a rest-harrow to ensure an even seedbed.
4. The rest-harrow, with its unique design, effectively broke up clumps of soil while preserving moisture.
5. In the machinery exhibit, a vintage rest-harrow caught the attention of agriculture enthusiasts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rest-harrow>