

RESTAGNANT

Meaning: Restagnant refers to a state of stagnation or lack of progress, characterized by inactivity or an inability to improve or develop.

1. The once vibrant economy has become restagnant, showing no signs of recovery.
2. Her enthusiasm for the project turned restagnant after repeated setbacks and lack of support.
3. In an increasingly competitive market, any business that remains restagnant risks obsolescence.
4. The restagnant mood in the office was palpable, as no new ideas had been introduced for months.
5. After years of restagnant growth, the company finally implemented innovative strategies to revitalize its brand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/restagnant>