

RESTAGNATION

Meaning: Restagnation is a period of stagnation characterized by a lack of growth or progress, particularly in economic or innovative contexts.

1. The economic restagnation has led to increasing unemployment rates in the region.
2. Many critics argue that the policy changes have resulted in a troubling restagnation of innovation.
3. After several years of rapid growth, the company faced a sudden restagnation in its sales figures.
4. The restagnation of the project caused frustration among the team members who had high hopes for success.
5. In the face of restagnation, the community sought new strategies to revitalize local businesses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/restagnation>