

RESTORABLE

Meaning: RESTORABLE: capable of being repaired or revitalized to a previous condition or state.

1. The ancient manuscript was damaged but was deemed restorable by the conservation team.
2. Her optimism about the relationship suggested that the friendship was still restorable.
3. The technician assured us that the corrupted files were restorable with the right software.
4. After the flood, many homes were found to be restorable, offering hope to the community.
5. The art piece, although it had suffered wear and tear, was considered restorable by the experts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/restorable>