

RESTRAINTMENT

Meaning: Restraintment refers to the act of limiting or controlling behavior or actions to maintain safety or emotional stability.

1. The court's decision was based on the necessity of restraintment to ensure public safety.
2. In therapy, the concept of self-restraint often overlaps with the idea of emotional restraintment.
3. The police officer explained that physical restraintment was necessary to prevent the suspect from fleeing.
4. Her restraintment of anger during the meeting demonstrated her professionalism and composure.
5. They discussed the ethical implications of restraintment in various contexts, including mental health and law enforcement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/restraintment>