

RESTRICTIVELY

Meaning: Restrictively means in a manner that imposes limits or constraints on actions, expressions, or freedoms.

1. The new regulations were enforced restrictively, limiting the activities of several businesses in the area.
2. She spoke restrictively about her plans, revealing little about her future intentions.
3. The guidelines were applied restrictively, leaving little room for interpretation or flexibility.
4. His approach to teaching was restrictively focused on traditional methods, discouraging innovative thinking.
5. They decided to implement the policy restrictively, ensuring that only qualified individuals could participate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/restrictively>