

RESULT

Meaning: Result: the outcome or consequence of a particular process, action, or event.

1. The result of the experiment confirmed the initial hypothesis.
2. She was delighted with the result of her hard work on the project.
3. After weeks of negotiation, the result was a mutually beneficial agreement.
4. The unexpected result of the study sparked new interest in the topic.
5. His dedication and perseverance ultimately led to a successful result.
6. The team's hard work and dedication yielded a remarkable result in the competition.
7. After analyzing the data, the scientist was pleased to see a clear result supporting her hypothesis.
8. The unexpected result of the experiment prompted further investigation into the underlying causes.
9. He attributed his success to the careful planning and execution that led to a favorable result.
10. In life, sometimes the most valuable result comes from lessons learned through failure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/result>