

RESULTANT

Meaning: Resultant: occurring as a consequence or effect of something else.

1. The resultant changes in the environment were noticeable after the policy was implemented.
2. She was proud of the resultant achievement after months of hard work and dedication.
3. The resultant force on the object determined its acceleration based on Newton's second law.
4. His decision to move abroad brought about a resultant shift in his perspective on life.
5. The team analyzed the resultant data to identify trends and make informed decisions.
6. The resultant force acting on the object determined its acceleration.
7. After hours of discussion, the resultant decision was to postpone the meeting.
8. In chemistry, the resultant product of the reaction was more complex than anticipated.
9. The resultant emotional response was one of relief and gratitude.
10. With each new variable introduced, the resultant data became increasingly difficult to analyze.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resultant>