

RESUMPTION

Meaning: Resumption: the act of beginning something again after a pause or interruption.

1. The resumption of classes after the pandemic brought a sense of normalcy back to the community.
2. After a long break, the orchestra eagerly anticipated the resumption of their concert series.
3. The company issued a statement regarding the resumption of operations following the maintenance work.
4. With the resumption of the peace talks, there is hope for a resolution to the ongoing conflict.
5. The resumption of the train service was welcomed by commuters who had faced significant delays.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resumption>