

RESUSCITABLE

Meaning: Resuscitable (adjective): capable of being revived or restored to life, especially after cardiac arrest or similar medical emergencies.

1. The medical team quickly assessed the patient to determine if he was resuscitable.
2. In cases of cardiac arrest, immediate intervention is crucial to identify resuscitable individuals.
3. Despite the challenges, the paramedics remained hopeful that the victim was still resuscitable.
4. During the training, we learned to recognize signs that indicate whether a person is resuscitable.
5. The doctors emphasized the importance of early CPR to maximize the chances of finding someone resuscitable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resuscitable>