

RESUSCITATION

Meaning: Resuscitation is the process of reviving someone from unconsciousness or apparent death, typically involving techniques to restore breathing and circulation.

1. The team worked tirelessly on the resuscitation of the patient who had collapsed during the marathon.
2. After several minutes of resuscitation efforts, the paramedics were finally able to restore the man's pulse.
3. Resuscitation techniques have evolved significantly, incorporating new technology and methods for better outcomes.
4. In many cases, early intervention in resuscitation can mean the difference between life and death.
5. The doctor emphasized the importance of training for effective resuscitation in emergency situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resuscitation>