

RESUSCITATIVE

Meaning: Resuscitative refers to actions or measures taken to revive or restore someone to consciousness or life, particularly in medical emergencies.

1. The medical team performed resuscitative measures to stabilize the patient's condition.
2. In emergency situations, timely resuscitative action can mean the difference between life and death.
3. The use of advanced resuscitative techniques has improved survival rates following cardiac arrest.
4. Her quick thinking and resuscitative efforts saved the drowning child from a tragic fate.
5. Training in resuscitative practices is essential for all healthcare professionals working in critical care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/resuscitative>