

RETALIATIVE

Meaning: Retaliative refers to actions taken in response to perceived wrongs or aggression, often intended to counter or punish.

1. The retaliative measures taken by the government sparked widespread protests among the citizens.
2. In a retaliative move, the company launched a competitive product to regain market share.
3. Her retaliative comments during the meeting created an uncomfortable atmosphere for everyone involved.
4. The retaliative actions of the rival factions led to an escalation in the ongoing conflict.
5. Many saw his decision as a retaliative response to the unfair treatment he had received.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retaliative>