

RETARDATIVE

Meaning: Retardative: causing delay or hindrance in progress or development.

1. The scientist noted that the medication had a retardative effect on the progression of the disease.
2. In the context of education, some teaching methods can be seen as retardative, hindering student learning.
3. The researchers aimed to understand the retardative mechanisms that slow down neural development.
4. Certain environmental factors can have a retardative impact on plant growth and development.
5. Her comments were perceived as retardative, preventing the group from making timely decisions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retardative>