

RETENTIVE

Meaning: Retentive: having the ability to retain or remember information effectively.

1. A retentive mind can absorb complex information quickly and efficiently.
2. Her retentive memory allowed her to recall details from years ago with remarkable clarity.
3. The professor praised his students for being so retentive, making discussions far more engaging.
4. To excel in this field, one must develop a retentive ability to remember critical concepts.
5. His retentive nature proved invaluable during the lengthy examinations, as he hardly forgot anything he studied.
6. The retentive nature of her memory allowed her to recall every detail from the meeting.
7. He has a retentive mind, making him an exceptional student in the field of science.
8. While some people struggle with learning new languages, others possess a retentive ability that makes it effortless.
9. The retentive properties of the sponge ensure that it can soak up a significant amount of water.
10. In ancient times, scholars were admired for their retentive skills in memorizing vast amounts of literature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retentive>