

RETENTIVELY

Meaning: RETENTIVELY: In a manner that promotes the ability to retain or remember information effectively.

1. The student studied retentively, ensuring that every detail stuck in her mind.
2. He approached the task retentively, allowing the information to settle in gradually.
3. In the meeting, she listened retentively, eager to absorb the new strategies presented.
4. His retentively sharpened memory made him an invaluable asset during the project.
5. The training program was designed to help participants learn retentively, reinforcing key concepts effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retentively>