

RETENTIVENESS

Meaning: Retentiveness refers to the ability to retain or remember information and details effectively.

1. Her retentiveness for details made her an excellent researcher.
2. The teacher praised the student's retentiveness, which helped him excel in memorizing complex theories.
3. Retentiveness is often seen as a valuable trait in professions that require extensive information recall.
4. Despite his age, his remarkable retentiveness allowed him to remember events from his childhood vividly.
5. The training program focused on improving participants' retentiveness through various memory techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retentiveness>