

RETICULATION

Meaning: Reticulation refers to the arrangement or network of interconnected lines or structures, such as veins or vessels, within a biological system.

1. The reticulation of veins in the leaf creates an intricate network for nutrient transport.
2. Scientists studied the reticulation of blood vessels in the brain to better understand how they influence cognition.
3. The artist's work featured a beautiful reticulation of colors that drew viewers in from a distance.
4. In architecture, reticulation refers to the complex patterns formed by intersecting lines and shapes.
5. The biologist was fascinated by the reticulation observed in the coral structure, which provided habitat to numerous marine species.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reticulation>