

RETIRING

Meaning: Retiring: characterized by a tendency to be reserved or shy; also refers to the act of leaving a job or position, especially after a long period of service.

1. She has a retiring nature, often preferring to listen rather than speak.
2. After decades of service, he is finally retiring from his position at the company.
3. The retiring teacher received heartfelt messages from her students on her last day.
4. Despite his retiring demeanor, he surprised everyone with his insightful comments during the meeting.
5. They planned a farewell party to celebrate her retiring after 30 years in the same job.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retiring>