

RETRACTATION

Meaning: Retraction refers to the act of withdrawing or taking back a previously made statement or claim.

1. The lawyer filed a motion for retraction of the previous statement made by the witness.
2. After much deliberation, the author issued a retraction of her claims regarding the study's findings.
3. His retraction of the controversial remark surprised many of his supporters.
4. The retraction was published in the journal, clarifying the inaccuracies of the initial report.
5. In an unexpected move, the politician announced a public retraction of his earlier comments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retraction>