

RETRENCH

Meaning: Retrench means to reduce or cut back on expenditures or personnel, typically in response to financial constraints.

1. The company had to retrench its workforce due to declining profits.
2. In an effort to save costs, the government decided to retrench several public services.
3. After assessing the financial situation, the board chose to retrench its spending on unnecessary projects.
4. The CEO announced plans to retrench operations in underperforming markets to focus on growth areas.
5. To survive the economic downturn, many families had to retrench their budgets and cut back on luxuries.
6. The company decided to retrench its workforce to cut costs during the economic downturn.
7. After years of expansion, the organization had to retrench its operations due to declining sales.
8. In an effort to improve efficiency, the board voted to retrench some of its less profitable divisions.
9. As the budget tightened, the university had no choice but to retrench its spending on various programs.
10. To ensure long-term sustainability, the startup had to retrench its ambitious growth plans and focus on profitability.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retrench>