

RETRIBUTE

Meaning: To retribute means to repay or reward someone for their kindness, support, or assistance.

1. The community decided to retribute the kindness shown by the volunteers during the recent disaster.
2. After years of hard work, he felt it was time to retribute his parents for their unwavering support.
3. She plans to retribute her friends' generosity with a surprise party for them all.
4. In many cultures, it is customary to retribute a gift with one of equal value.
5. He believes that love should be retributed freely, without the expectation of anything in return.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retribute>