

RETRIMENT

Meaning: Retriment refers to the act of retiring or the state of having retired from a position or policy.

1. The retriment of the old policy was met with mixed reactions from the community.
2. After years of dedicated work, she finally reached a point of retriment in her career.
3. His retriment from the board allowed for new leadership to emerge.
4. The retriment of the veteran teacher left a noticeable gap in the school's faculty.
5. With each retriment, the organization had to adapt to new challenges and opportunities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retriment>