

RETROVACCINATION

Meaning: Retrovaccination is the practice of administering a vaccine to individuals who have previously been vaccinated, often to enhance immunity or in response to emerging health threats.

1. Retrovaccination has become a topic of discussion among medical professionals in recent years.
2. The concept of retrovaccination raises several ethical questions regarding its implementation.
3. In some countries, retrovaccination is seen as a crucial strategy to combat resurgent diseases.
4. Researchers are exploring the effectiveness of retrovaccination in populations with declining immunity.
5. The retrovaccination campaign aimed to boost immunity levels in children who missed their initial doses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/retrovaccination>