

REVAMP

Meaning: Revamp: to renovate, improve, or redesign something to enhance its appeal or functionality.

1. The company decided to revamp its marketing strategy to attract a younger audience.
2. After years of neglect, the historic building was finally slated for a revamp to restore its former glory.
3. Her fashion sense needed a revamp, so she consulted a stylist for fresh ideas.
4. The software developers are planning to revamp the user interface for better accessibility.
5. To increase sales, the restaurant opted to revamp its menu with healthier options.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revamp>