

REVEALABILITY

Meaning: Revealability refers to the degree to which information can be disclosed or made known, particularly in relation to stakeholders and data privacy considerations.

1. The concept of revealability is crucial in determining what information can be shared with stakeholders.
2. In the context of data privacy, revealability must be carefully balanced with the need for transparency.
3. Lawyers often debate the revealability of certain documents during litigation proceedings.
4. The revealability of sensitive information can significantly influence public opinion and trust.
5. Assessing the revealability of personal data is essential for compliance with privacy regulations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revealability>