

REVEL

Meaning: To revel means to take great pleasure or delight in something, often in a joyful or celebratory manner.

1. She decided to revel in the joy of her family's reunion after so many years apart.
2. The children reveled in the freedom of summer vacation, running freely in the warm sun.
3. As the music played, the crowd began to revel together, dancing and cheering without a care.
4. He chose to revel in his accomplishments, celebrating each milestone with loved ones.
5. During the festival, people from all over came to revel in the vibrant culture and lively performances.
6. She decided to revel in the moment, dancing freely under the stars.
7. The children revel in the joy of the holiday season, eagerly awaiting the festivities.
8. As the music played, the crowd began to revel, losing themselves in the rhythm.
9. After a long week of work, he planned to revel in a weekend of relaxation and indulgence.
10. They revel in their shared success, celebrating the milestones they achieved together.
11. She decided to revel in the joyous atmosphere of the festival.
12. The children reveled in the snow, building forts and having snowball fights.
13. After a long week of hard work, he planned to revel in a relaxing weekend getaway.
14. They reveled in their victory, celebrating late into the night with friends and family.
15. As the night unfolded, the crowd began to revel in the music, dancing freely under the stars.
16. They revel in the joy of each other's company during the summer festival.
17. As the clock struck midnight, they began to revel in the excitement of the New Year.
18. He found a way to revel in the little things, appreciating the beauty of everyday life.
19. The children revel in the magic of the holiday season, filled with wonder and joy.
20. She couldn't help but revel in her success after years of hard work and dedication.
21. She decided to revel in the joy of the moment, forgetting all her worries.

22. As the music played, the crowd began to revel in the festive atmosphere of the carnival.
 23. After a long week of work, he planned to revel in a well-deserved weekend getaway.
 24. They would often revel in their shared memories, laughing late into the night.
 25. The children reveled in the excitement of their birthday party, surrounded by friends and cake.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revel>