

REVELATION

Meaning: Revelation: a surprising and previously unknown fact or insight that brings about a significant change in understanding or perspective.

1. The revelation she had during meditation changed her perspective on life.
2. His book was a profound revelation that challenged many longstanding beliefs.
3. The team's hard work culminated in a revelation that would revolutionize the industry.
4. Upon discovering the hidden truth, the revelation left him both thrilled and terrified.
5. The artist's latest painting was a revelation, showcasing a depth of emotion previously unseen in her work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revelation>