

REVELMENT

Meaning: Revelment refers to a state of enjoyment or lively celebration, often characterized by festivity and delight.

1. The revelment at the festival drew crowds from all over the city.
2. She found great revelment in the simple pleasures of life, like reading by the fire.
3. The children's laughter added to the revelment of the summer picnic.
4. His eyes sparkled with revelment as he shared stories of his travels.
5. The annual parade was a time for revelment and community spirit among the residents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revelment>