

REVENDEICATION

Meaning: Revendication refers to a demand or claim for rights, services, or recognition, often made by a group seeking social or political change.

1. The community's revendication for better public services was met with mixed responses from local officials.
2. After years of struggle, the activists finally achieved their revendication for equal rights and recognition.
3. The artist's work serves as a revendication of cultural identity in a rapidly changing society.
4. In her speech, she emphasized the importance of revendication in the fight against social injustice.
5. His novel explores themes of revendication and redemption against a backdrop of historical turmoil.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revendication>