

REVERB

Meaning: Reverb is an audio effect that simulates the persistence of sound in a space, creating a sense of depth and atmosphere in music or recordings.

1. The reverb in the concert hall added a rich depth to the music.
2. After recording the vocals, the producer applied a subtle reverb effect to enhance the atmosphere.
3. Many guitarists use reverb pedals to create a sense of space in their sound.
4. The natural reverb in the cave made our voices echo dramatically.
5. She loved the haunting quality of the reverb that lingered after the piano notes faded.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reverb>