

REVERENCER

Meaning: Reverencer (verb): To honor or show deep respect for someone or something, often by acknowledging its significance or contributions.

1. The artist chose to reverencer the ancient traditions in her modern interpretation of the craft.
2. In his speech, he aimed to reverencer the sacrifices made by those who fought for freedom.
3. The ceremony was designed to reverencer the contributions of the local community to the region's culture.
4. To reverencer the memory of the fallen, a memorial was erected in the town square.
5. She felt a deep urge to reverencer the wisdom of her ancestors through storytelling.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reverencer>