

REVERENT

Meaning: REVERENT: Showing deep respect and admiration, often in a solemn or worshipful manner.

1. The congregation sat in reverent silence as the choir sang their final hymn.
2. She approached the ancient temple with a reverent attitude, mindful of its historical significance.
3. His reverent tone when discussing the great thinkers of the past inspired many in the lecture hall.
4. The artist captured the reverent gaze of the statue, highlighting its spiritual essence.
5. In the presence of the veteran, the young soldiers felt a reverent respect for his sacrifices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reverent>