

REVEST

Meaning: To revest means to cover or provide a new surface or layer to an object, often for aesthetic or protective purposes.

1. The artisan decided to revest the old chair with luxurious fabric to give it a fresh look.
2. In an effort to modernize the building, the architects chose to revest the exterior with sleek metal panels.
3. After years of wear, they finally opted to revest the swimming pool with vibrant tiles.
4. To protect the historical monument from decay, the preservation team planned to revest the stone facade.
5. She was excited to revest her favorite book in a new cover that reflected her personal style.
6. The ancient walls were carefully revested to restore their former glory.
7. To protect the structure from moisture, the architects decided to revest the exterior with a modern material.
8. After years of wear and tear, they planned to revest the old wooden floors with sleek tiles.
9. The artist chose to revest the canvas with layers of vibrant paint to enhance the colors.
10. As part of the renovation, they aimed to revest the old building with energy-efficient insulation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revest>