

REVIEWAL

Meaning: Reviewal: the act or process of examining or assessing something, such as a manuscript or project, to evaluate its quality or make decisions.

1. The reviewal process for the manuscript took longer than anticipated.
2. After a thorough reviewal of the project, we decided to make significant changes.
3. Her feedback during the reviewal helped improve the overall quality of the report.
4. The committee scheduled a reviewal of all the proposals submitted this quarter.
5. We need to prepare for the upcoming reviewal by gathering all necessary documents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reviewal>