

REVILE

Meaning: Revile: to criticize or speak about someone or something in a contemptuous or abusive manner.

1. Many people revile those who challenge their long-held beliefs.
2. The politician was reviled by the public after the scandal broke.
3. It is unkind to revile someone for mistakes they made in the past.
4. The artist's work was initially reviled but later gained critical acclaim.
5. She felt it was unjust to revile a person based on rumors alone.
6. She felt it was unjust to revile someone for their mistakes without understanding the context.
7. In his speech, he chose to revile the corruption he saw in the government rather than offer solutions.
8. The critics began to revile the artist's work, claiming it lacked originality and depth.
9. Despite the backlash, she refused to revile her opponent, believing in the importance of respect.
10. It is easy to revile those who disagree with us, but true wisdom lies in empathy and understanding.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revile>