

REVILING

Meaning: Reviling refers to the act of criticizing or speaking about someone in a harsh, abusive, or contemptuous manner.

1. The politician faced intense reviling from the public after the scandal broke.
2. Despite the reviling she encountered online, she remained committed to her beliefs.
3. His reviling comments about her work revealed his deep-seated jealousy.
4. The artist's reviling of mainstream culture resonated with many in the underground scene.
5. After the controversial decision, the committee experienced a wave of reviling that was hard to ignore.
6. The constant reviling of his character eventually took a toll on his mental health.
7. In the heated debate, both sides resorted to reviling each other rather than discussing the issues at hand.
8. She found it hard to understand why people felt the need to engage in reviling rather than constructive criticism.
9. The reviling he faced on social media was overwhelming, yet he chose to rise above it.
10. Despite the reviling from his peers, he remained steadfast in his beliefs and convictions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reviling>