

REVOCATORY

Meaning: Revocatory refers to an action or order that cancels, nullifies, or reverses a previous decision or judgment.

1. The court issued a revocatory order, nullifying the previous decision.
2. In certain cases, a revocatory appeal can be filed to challenge a final judgment.
3. The revocatory nature of the contract allowed either party to withdraw without penalty.
4. Her revocatory statement effectively canceled the agreement they had signed.
5. The judge emphasized the importance of revocatory measures in protecting the rights of the parties involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revocatory>