

REVOLTING

Meaning: Revolting: causing intense disgust or repulsion.

1. The smell emanating from the garbage was absolutely revolting.
2. Her behavior at the dinner party was so revolting that many guests chose to leave early.
3. He found the idea of cheating on the exam revolting and couldn't understand how anyone could do it.
4. The revolting scenes in the documentary sparked a heated debate among viewers.
5. After tasting the dish, she declared it revolting and pushed her plate away in disgust.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revolting>