

REVULSE

Meaning: To cause someone to feel strong disgust or repulsion.

1. The graphic details of the documentary served to revulse many viewers.
2. Her constant complaints about trivial matters began to revulse her friends.
3. The sight of the decaying food in the fridge was enough to revulse anyone.
4. He felt a revulse within himself at the thought of betraying his best friend.
5. The movie's disturbing themes were intended to revulse the audience and provoke thought.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revulse>