

REVULSION

Meaning: Revulsion is a strong feeling of disgust or repulsion towards something offensive or morally distasteful.

1. The graphic images in the documentary filled her with a sense of revulsion.
2. He felt a deep revulsion towards the corruption that plagued the organization.
3. The revulsion she experienced after hearing the news was palpable, leaving her speechless.
4. Despite his initial excitement, he was met with revulsion when he tasted the strange dish.
5. The community expressed revulsion at the proposed legislation, rallying together to oppose it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revulsion>