

REVULSIVE

Meaning: Revulsive: causing a strong feeling of disgust or repulsion.

1. The revulsive images from the documentary left a lasting impression on the audience.
2. His revulsive behavior during the meeting shocked his colleagues.
3. The novel's revulsive themes explored the darker side of human nature.
4. Many found the artwork revulsive, unable to appreciate its intended message.
5. The revulsive odor emanating from the trash was unbearable for those nearby.
6. The sight of the revulsive scene made her stomach turn.
7. His revulsive behavior at the dinner party shocked everyone present.
8. She found the revulsive details of the crime hard to stomach.
9. The movie was filled with revulsive imagery that haunted viewers long after it ended.
10. Many considered the policy to be revulsive and wholly unacceptable in a modern society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/revulsive>