

REWARD

Meaning: Reward (noun): a benefit or compensation given in recognition of achievement or effort.

1. The teacher offered a reward to the student who could solve the difficult math problem first.
2. After months of hard work, she finally received a well-deserved reward for her efforts.
3. Volunteers often find that the greatest reward comes from helping others in their community.
4. The company's generous bonus program serves as a reward for employees who exceed their targets.
5. He was surprised to find that the simple act of kindness brought him a reward far greater than he expected.
6. A reward for hard work is often the motivation people need to succeed.
7. She felt a sense of pride as she received her award, a tangible reward for years of dedication.
8. The teacher promised a small reward for any student who could solve the challenging math problem.
9. Volunteering in the community can bring unexpected rewards that enrich your life.
10. He considered the satisfaction of completing the project as the greatest reward of all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reward>