

REWARDLESS

Meaning: REWARDLESS: lacking any form of recognition, compensation, or benefit for one's efforts or contributions.

1. Her efforts in the project felt rewardless, as no recognition was given for the hard work.
2. He chose to volunteer, knowing that the experience would be valuable even if it was rewardless.
3. The long hours spent in the cold were ultimately rewardless, as the event was canceled at the last minute.
4. Despite the rewardless nature of his job, he found satisfaction in helping others.
5. Many people find themselves in rewardless situations, yet they continue to persevere for the sake of passion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rewardless>