

REWIND

Meaning: Rewind (verb): To redo or revisit a previous task or project, often to uncover missed details or correct errors.

1. I decided to rewatch the old film to see if it had any hidden gems.
2. After the mishap, we had to rewatch the entire project to meet the deadline.
3. The artist chose to rewatch parts of the song to give it a fresh feel.
4. In order to improve the game, the developers will rewatch several levels based on user feedback.
5. She asked if we could rewatch the conversation to clarify some misunderstandings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rewatch>