

REXPEL

Meaning: REXPEL (verb): to force out or eliminate something from a space or environment.

1. The new air purifier is designed to expel harmful toxins from the environment.
2. He used a powerful fan to expel the smoke that filled the room after the fire.
3. The coach's strategy was to expel any doubts the players had about their abilities.
4. In a fit of anger, she wished she could expel all negative thoughts from her mind.
5. The volcanic eruption caused the mountain to expel ash and molten lava into the sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rexpel>