

RHETOR

Meaning: Rhetor: a person skilled in the art of effective speaking or writing, particularly in the context of persuasion.

1. The rhetor captivated the audience with his eloquent speech.
2. As a skilled rhetor, she knew how to persuade her listeners effectively.
3. In ancient Greece, the role of the rhetor was essential in shaping public opinion.
4. The rhetor's use of metaphors added depth to his argument.
5. Her training as a rhetor allowed her to navigate complex debates with ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rhetor>