

RHETORIC

Meaning: Rhetoric is the art of effective or persuasive speaking or writing, often employing figures of speech and other compositional techniques.

1. The politician's rhetoric was both persuasive and inspiring, capturing the attention of the audience.
2. In her speech, she used vivid rhetoric to paint a compelling picture of the future.
3. Critics argue that his rhetoric often masks a lack of concrete policies.
4. Effective rhetoric can sway public opinion and shape the course of debates.
5. The class focused on analyzing the use of rhetoric in famous literary works.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rhetoric>