

RHETORICAL

Meaning: Rhetorical refers to the art of effective or persuasive communication, often involving techniques such as questions or devices that enhance expression and engage an audience.

1. The politician's speech was filled with rhetorical questions designed to engage the audience.
2. Her use of rhetorical devices enhanced the emotional impact of her writing.
3. During the debate, he employed a rhetorical strategy that left his opponents speechless.
4. The lecturer emphasized the importance of rhetorical skills in effective communication.
5. She made a rhetorical statement that subtly criticized the government's policies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rhetorical>